Ben bikes for mental health

Ben is riding over 18,000km around Australia in memory of his brother Jase who passed away due to suicide in 2015 after suffering from depression. Ben is undertaking this cycling journey to spread awareness of mental health, to show people that mental illness affects everyone in some way or another and that it is nothing to be ashamed of. Ben wants to encourage people to talk about what they are going through and to reach out for support if things aren't going well.

Ben is also raising funds for The Black Dog Institute, an organisation focussed on the diagnosis, prevention and treatment of mental illnesses such as depression. Funds raised via the Ride for Jase will go towards the Black Dog Institute's mental health and suicide prevention programs in schools and community based settings. Ben's goal is to raise $300,000 and you can help out by donating at <https://rideforjase.gofundraise.com.au/>

Ben started his journey in Sydney and is now at day 15 of the ride. The journey is expected to take 6 months to complete as Ben will travel to the most northern, eastern, southern and western points of the country as well as Uluru. Once complete, the journey will achieve a Guinness World Record for the most amount of km cycled in a single country. www.rideforjase.org Kat Woods

GUNDIAH COMMUNITY CHRONICLE

Edition Number 88

Well readers, it appears summer is on the way, but the bad news is that rain isn't our favourite subject 'as yet'...

Another subject that gets on my barrow is electricity prices. We are developing alternate sources of power, but sometimes I have to wonder. Leave it the way it was, its cheaper. I personally have spent most of my life in construction industries from nuclear power plants in the UK, to Service Maintenance of mining machinery around the world before I retired to Gootchie. I have learned that our so-called leaders don't know what they are talking about. Oh I forgot, they could call for rain as a distraction.

QUESTION OF THE MONTH. Why do the Main Roads go to such great efforts to build roads with 2 lanes when, with so much machinery on site they could build 4 lanes? I will leave you to find the answer. Please send it in.

OUR GAVIN. Yes he shone again this month. This time he went out in his dingy and ended up in a green zone. He was minding his business and more than likely having a kip, when a Patrol boat came racing towards him, threatening to throw the book at him, take his boat, etc. (What they were going to do with his crew of 2 x 22 year old blondes?) Our boy performed well and the patrol boys gave up after he promised he was going to buy some maps.. that's our boy.

TODAY'S JOKE. A husband and his wife had a bitter quarrel on the day of their 40th wedding anniversary.

The husband yells, "When you die I'm getting you a headstone that reads 'Here lies my wife cold as ever!'"

"Yes," she replies, "When you die I'm getting you a headstone - 'Here lies my husband, Stiff at last!'"

Heather Behrendorff made the cake, and the group of 30 odd ducks were fed and watered at the Gundy Pub.

LOCAL GOSSIP

Gazette Party.

It was time for a party – a thank you to all our Gazette helpers over the years.

Yes, good readers, we reached the 8-year mark and there are a lot of people who help with distribution and contributing news and articles, meeting deadlines or at times keeping the office sober. Thank you to all of you!

This Roving Reporter would especially like to say a big thank you to our editor, Sandi – we would not have such a classic paper without her skills and dedication. Our Susan is also a tireless worker, keeping our accounts, and me, on track.

We always welcome new contributors, advertisers, more workers and enjoy meeting new people in the district. We started printing 100 gazettes for locals, now we distribute to the district 1250+.

So back to the party: the dinner, dessert and music by Brad's Rock n' Rhythm was great, but the strip show by DAN THE MAN was well worth the attendance! 'Shame the lights went out before (we saw) the end...' Trevor Keightley 0456916111

The tragedy was felt by many, with a memorial committee being formed to place a monument to George Douglas Groundwater, son of Mr. William Groundwater, of 'Laurel Bank,' Tinana. Mr George Ambrose White, a local farmer and businessman donated £1000 to build the public baths at Maryborough. Mr White stipulated "that the Baths be free to school children of Maryborough and district for all time.." He said that no child should die because they can't swim.

The Baths were opened 26 May 1906 and were in use until 1961, with Mr White paying £1400 toward the project. The memorial is in Maryborough cemetery: "A lad of parts, of gentle ways, who strove with all his boyish might, to make his parent's household bright, and strengthen all their happy days"...

MARYBOROUGH, October 23.
A boy named George Groundwater was drowned in the river to-day while trying to save his cousin, George Robinson, who had drifted out into deep water in a boat and then jumped into the river. The deceased's father saved the boy Robinson. The deceased was a good swimmer, and gained a School of Arts scholarship last year.

Dickabram Bridge

Firstly, how many of our readers have seen this bridge and driven across it? If you have not, then you will have to wait 4 years to cross, due to major maintenance. All is not lost, however, as you can take your BBQ to the rest stop on the Miva side and enjoy the view of this masterpiece .

The original road bridge across the Mary river at Miva had opened on the 30th October 1878. That bridge was damaged by floods in July 1879 (note: mid winter!! - climate change was happening then too!) and swept away by floods in February 1880. A replacement road bridge was swept away by floods in October 1882, and it was then decided by the Government to build a rail bridge that would carry road traffic as well.

The bridge construction was awarded to McDermott Owen & Co in 1884. The bridge was tested in Nov 1886 with a 2-engine train and the line opened for traffic on 6th Dec 1886. The bridge has remained in use without substantial modification work since its completion. Diesel/electric locomotives came into being and the decking was modified by adding a kerb in the 1970s to separate road and rail traffic and to eliminate the need for a gate keeper to control road traffic.

The bridge is 191m long and stands 23m above the Mary River. All spans are metal trusses except for the 11m approach spans which are tied timber girders.

The name of the bridge comes from a local Aboriginal word... (continued p4)

GARDENING TIPS

BY KAREN FAWKE

Well spring is finally upon us – cool nights and warm days. If you are looking for better ways to utilize your limited water there is one way to conserve water for growing plants – it is called a wicker bed. The idea of a wicker bed is to draw water up from a reservoir below, hence the word. Wicking the moisture moves through the soil and feeds the roots directly. This idea is great for low rainfall areas. You can build a closed one or raised garden wicker bed.

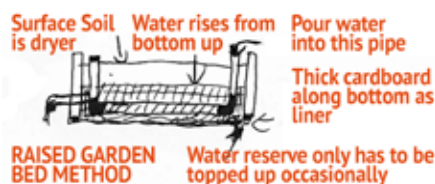

How to make a wicker bed: Choose a suitable site full sun for veggies. Ensure that it is level. The depth needs to be around 600mm. (300 mm for reservoir/water zone and 300 mm for growing/root zone.) Pour about an inch of gravel into the bed for the pipe to sit on.

Install a length of PVC pipe about 50 mm diameter vertically, attached to a PVC 90 degree elbow that will sit near the base of the bed on top of the gravel. Attach a length of 50mm agi pipe or slotted PVC pipe to the elbow and this will run the length of the bed along the centre. Place the cap on the end of the agi pipe. Cover pipe at the bottom of the bed with gravel to total depth of 300 mm max.

Place your overflow pipe at the top of this layer of gravel covering the external end with a small piece of shade cloth or stocking. Add the shade cloth doubled over this layer needs to let water up but prevent soil moving down. Fill the bed with good quality loamy soil with high organic content and mulch well. Fill the water reservoir until water comes through the overflow pipe. Once soil is damp, plant out your wicking bed with your favourite edibles, as the plants roots will draw down to the moisture.

Water less and enjoy seeing how your plants grow. Tomatoes especially grow a great height and produce lots of fruit for your family to eat. Diagram below.

Happy Gardening, till next time. Karen

Lines in the Sand – Inspiration for readers and writers

Australian writers Nicole Alexander, Don Watson and Peter FitzSimmons will feature at the Lines in the Sand Readers and Writers Festival in Hervey Bay from September 15 to 17.

The festival is a mixture of free and paid workshops, lectures, meet and greets and book signings.

"The festival is not just for writers," Cr Lewis said. "There will be lectures by the managing director of Boolarong Press, Dan Kelly, on how to be published and plenty of opportunities for readers to enjoy themselves."

Lectures will be free but there is a small cost for some of the workshops. Spaces at the lectures and workshops are limited so bookings are essential. Call Fraser Coast Library, 4197 4220, library@frasercoast.qld.gov.au. or look online.

Vietnam Veterans' Day and the anniversary of the Battle of Long Tan

August 18, 2017. Llew O'Brien, MP, encouraged us to honour the service and sacrifice of the Australians who served in Vietnam War as the country marked Vietnam Veterans' Day and the Battle of Long Tan.

Nearly 60,000 Australian men and women served in the Vietnam War between 1962 and 1975, including 521 who lost their lives and more than 3,000 wounded.

"August 18 also marks the 51st anniversary of the Battle of Long Tan, which was one of the fiercest battles of the Vietnam War and involved 105 Australians and three New Zealanders of D Company 6RAR," Mr O'Brien said. "A total of 17 Australians were killed in action during the Battle of Long Tan, and 25 were wounded. One of the wounded later died of his injuries."

Mr O'Brien acknowledged the assistance given to D Company with an ammunition resupply by RAAF helicopters, as well as support by Australian, New Zealand and United States artillery and the arrival of reinforcements in APCs.

"We reflect with pride on the members of our community who served in Vietnam, and how their efforts have shaped our country. This is an opportunity for veterans and the community to stand side-by-side, remembering their service and sacrifice," Mr O'Brien said. O'Brien

Tiaro Arts & Crafts Day

We were very lucky to have stall holder Leonie from up near Bundaberg, local Author - Margaret Blake in attendance and the Blake family from Victory Village wearing their wonderful olden day clothing, and armour, all hand made as it was in those times. Our arts and crafts display was poorly supported, but the Kitchen did a roaring trade with many locals coming in to support! Thank you!

International Overdose Awareness Day (IOAD)

IOAD is a global event held on August 31st each year, aiming to raise awareness of overdose and reduce the stigma of a drug-related death. It also acknowledges the grief felt by families and friends remembering those who have met with death or permanent injury as a result of drug overdose. Overdose Day spreads the message that the tragedy of overdose death is preventable.

Alcohol Overdose

Alcohol is a legal depressant that slows down the messages travelling between the brain and the body. In small amounts, alcohol can cause you to feel relaxed, more confident and heighten your emotions.

Alcohol depresses the nerves that control involuntary actions such as breathing and the gag reflex (to prevent choking). A fatal dose of alcohol will eventually cause these functions to shut down. Since alcohol is an irritant to the stomach, excessive vomiting is also common. If the person is unconscious, this could lead to death by asphyxiation.

Signs of Overdose

- Confusion
- Loss of co-ordination
- Vomiting
- Seizures
- Irregular breathing (a gap of more than 10 seconds between breaths)
- Slow breathing (less than eight breaths per minute)
- Pale or blue tinged skin
- Low body temperature (hypothermia)
- Unconsciousness or passing out.

Overdose Response

- Call an ambulance, advise location, stay on the line.
- Keep them warm.
- If unconscious, put them in the recovery position.
- If awake, keep them in a sitting position and awake.
- Be prepared to give CPR if they stop breathing.
- If muscle spasms or seizures occur, clear area of objects.

What not to do in the event of a suspected Overdose

- Do NOT leave them to sleep it off.
- Do NOT give them coffee.
- Do NOT make them sick.
- Do NOT walk them

around • Do NOT put them in a cold shower. • Do NOT let them drink more alcohol. www.overdoseday.com

I would like to take this opportunity to say a fond farewell to all of the patients that have supported me over the past few years. Thank you not only for your support, but also your patience and kind words. I am sorry I was unable to say Good-bye to every one personally but the sale of the practice occurred very quickly and quite unexpectedly. I wish the new doctors all the very best and I am sure having 2 doctors is a great benefit to the local community. To those who sent cards, flowers and gifts- many thanks and I appreciate your kind words - it meant a lot to me. God Bless you all.

DESIGNED FOR YOU

Above: Senior's Morning Tea at Tiaro Memorial Hall, thanks to those lovely QCWA ladies and the Fraser Coast Council.

Seniors Morning Tea

A wonderful time was had by the folk that attended on the 22nd August in the Memorial Hall in Tiaro. The food provided for this Morning tea was a sight for sore eyes, and enjoyed by everyone. It was lovely to see people come from Bauple, Tiaro and Maryborough to enjoy the music provided by some of the Mansong group, and entertainment MaDcota and the Seniors group from Maryborough provided.

A big thank you to Ann Maree for including the Tiaro District in this event, which hopefully will be held in Gundiah next year, and must not forget to thank the wonderful cooks and CWA ladies for that delicious morning tea. Hope you can join us again next year.

Shearer Showdown

By Madison Powell and Lara Walmsley

From 10am to 3pm daily in the RACQ Animal Nursery, farmers are shearing sheep to entertain and educate the crowd about agriculture [at the Ekka]. The sheep shearing show is attracting large crowds who come to learn about old and new styles of shearing.

There are different competitions involving sheep this year including shearing, fleece, and ram judging. The prizes for winners are ribbons, trophies and money.

Shearer Hayden Elee has been a shearer for 25 years. "We always get a good crowd down here at the Ekka who are interested in the subject," he said.

This year's winners have been announced in the Animal Nursery and on the Ekka website.

Farmers and shearers come from all around Queensland to show off their sheep shearing skills at the Brisbane Ekka.

Below: Local schoolgirls were published in the Ekka magazine. Lara, 11, is also a regular columnist for the Gundiah Gazette.

"The free weekend is for domestic waste only and encourages residents to clean up around their homes before the storm season," Disaster Management Portfolio Councillor Rolf Light said. "Waiving the fee will increase its popularity."

It is proposed to hold the Get Ready - Storm Season Clean-up on Saturday, November 25 and Sunday, November 26.

"That weekend Council will waive waste disposal charges for all domestic general waste including tyres, mattresses, refrigerators and air conditioning units (gassed or de-gassed)," Cr Light said.

Fees and charges will still to apply for commercial waste. FCRC

Pauline on holidays at St.Stephens

I hope Pauline does not get a copy of this, as I'm sure she will arrange a punishment. However, I will tell you as it may stop others sharing this problem.

It all started about 12 weeks ago. Most of our friends know we have left the farm and have a new house at Dundowran Beach. The floors are mostly carpeted except for the dining room, kitchen and bathrooms. We had visitors over one after noon and Pauline had the dog in her arms to put him outside when she did the splits on the tiles that would make a ballerina proud! It was excruciating, her knee was swollen and she has not been able to walk normally since.

Our GP sent her to the specialist at St Stephens and she was booked in to have a knee replacement. To date she has been 8 days and could be another 10 plus before she can walk as normal and captain the women's soccer team.

One of the reasons for telling you this story is, if you are having tiles make sure you install non-skid. Pauline's accident was the result of water on the tiles which you could not see at the time. The second problem is, if the wife has an operation the male has to cook, clean the house, feed the dogs, do the washing etc., all because of water in the wrong place! Oh life is tough. My friends will understand that I have not got the new staff in yet but will advise when this comes into play.

One point I missed was to say a very big thank you to the nurses and staff at St Stephens, you are number one!! Trevor Keightley.

Glenwood Swap Meet draws a good crowd

From the Glenwood News. What a wonderful warm but windy day Saturday 19th turned out to be for our 14th Annual Glenwood Swap Meet & Car and Bike Show. There were over 50 immaculate cars and bikes for everyone to admire and over 190 swap sites with something for everyone. Karen Thomsen, along with Barry Charles and some of our local musicians entertained us. Trophies were awarded for the Car & Bike Show in 18 different categories with the ages of the vehicles ranging from 1923 to 2003—what a display. Thanks must go to all of our volunteers who assisted in the week prior, on the day and at clean up day on Sunday and thanks also to our valuable sponsors. Without the support of all these wonderful people the event wouldn't have been the success for Glenwood that it was. Glenwood Progress Association

Free courtesy bus for children in Tiaro area

Paisley Park Early Learning Centre at Tinana has recently introduced a free courtesy bus that picks up children from their home and takes them to the centre for a day of fun and learning. The bus also transfers children to and from the centre to school, making childcare, before and after school care an easy option

De-amalgamation only comes at Councillor's request says Diehm

Cliff Thomas of Maryborough delivered a deputation to Fraser Coast Council in July on behalf of 11000+ voters, calling for FCRC to take a poll on splitting the FCRC into two or more councils.

The deputation was not met with enthusiasm or support from Fraser Coast Councillors, as understandably this would require the Councillors to take a step down in pay scale and for a major re-organisation of the council.

Mr Thomas is convinced that the success in other councils' splits can be mirrored in this area and that it is the only solution to the present woes of council. The deputation was also presented by Jannean Dean of Hervey Bay and representatives of the Local Government Reform Alliance.

The Squirrel and the Grasshopper

THE POPULAR VERSION : The squirrel works hard in the withering heat all summer long, building and improving his house and laying up supplies for the winter.

The grasshopper thinks he's a fool, and laughs and dances and plays the summer away.

Come winter, the squirrel is warm and well fed.

The shivering grasshopper has no food or shelter, so he dies, out in the cold. THE END

THE AUSSIE VERSION : The squirrel works hard in the withering heat all summer long, building his house and laying up supplies for the winter.

The grasshopper thinks he's a fool, and laughs and dances and plays the summer away.

Come winter, the squirrel is warm and well fed.

A social worker finds the shivering grasshopper, calls a press conference and demands to know why the squirrel should be allowed to be warm and well fed while others less fortunate, like the grasshopper, are cold and starving.

The ABC shows up to provide live coverage of the shivering grasshopper.

The Australian press informs people that they should be ashamed that in a country of such wealth, this poor grasshopper is allowed to suffer so while others have plenty.

Activists have a demonstration in front of the squirrel's house.

The Opposition Minister rants in a radio interview that the squirrel got rich off the backs of grasshoppers, and calls for an immediate tax hike on the squirrel to make him pay his 'fair share'.

In response to pressure from the media, the Government drafts the Economic Equity and Grasshopper Anti-Discrimination Act, retroactive to the beginning of the summer. The squirrel's taxes are reassessed.

The Squirrel is taken to court and fined for failing to hire grasshoppers as builders, for the work he was doing on his home and an additional fine for contempt when he told the court the grasshopper did not want to work.

The grasshopper is provided with a Housing Commission house, financial aid to furnish it and an account with a local taxi firm to ensure he can be socially mobile.

The squirrel's food is seized as payment for fines and re-distributed to the more needy members of society - in this case the grasshopper.

Without enough money to buy more food or to pay his newly imposed retroactive taxes, the squirrel has to downsize and start building a new home.

A 60 Minutes special shows the grasshopper finishing up the last of the squirrel's food, though spring is still months away, while the Housing Commission house he is in, crumbles around him because he hasn't bothered to maintain it. The Opposition call for the resignation of the Prime Minister.

The squirrel is told that he will have to work beyond 65 because of a shortfall in government funds.

THE END

Dunga Derby rallies around

The Dunga Derby is the annual fund-raising event that sees up to 50 teams take part in a 4-day car rally, raising funds for the Fraser Coast community. The rally is a fun event as the themed DUNGA cars must be over 10 years old and cost under $2000.

This year, the Dungs left for the Rally at 7am, Thursday 3rd August from the Hervey Bay RSL and returned to the Seafront Oval on Sunday 6th August.

Yolande Bromet of Bauple was a volunteer and the Tiaro SCOTS group and the Royal Hotel sponsored a vehicle.

The Gazette will report on the outcomes next month. www.rallyforacause.org.au.

A Community Information Meeting was held at Eumundi School of Arts Hall on August 30 to outline the consequences for the pristine waters of Great Sandy Strait and Fraser Island should the proposed Colton Coal Mine near Maryborough proceed.

Professor Jon Brodie (Centre of Excellence Coral Reef Studies), Dr Tanzi Smith of Mary River Catchment Coordinating Committee, John Sinclair AO of Fraser Island Defenders Org and others outlined the environmental impacts that the proposed coal mine will have on this World Heritage Area.

Miva Ladies busy helping

August: At our August meeting, Sue Newth was back in the Chair in the absence of President Lyn Bunkum, and we were very happy to welcome a new member to our Branch - Heather McCoy. Our very first ever Bunning's Sausage Sizzle was busily organised for Gympie on Saturday 26th August and Stephanie read the formal instructions given by Bunnings as members divided the chores between them.

The new shed is looking good - but not everyone has seen inside it yet as too much else was going on. This included the assembly of Crisis Bags for women seeking shelter from domestic violence in the Gympie area. On a lighter note, some photos of Miva members doing the Can Can several years ago were found recently and raised some mirth as they were showed around.

Nepal. International Officer, Stephanie Mitchell, spoke of the basic economy of Nepal where the large majority of the people are subsistence farmers who grow rice, other grains, and vegetables. Many have chickens and goats. Nepal is one of the poorest countries in the world due to scarce natural resources, a difficult terrain, being landlocked, and having infrastructure problems. It has feudal land tenure systems, ineffectual development efforts, and Foreign Aid rarely goes to the neediest sectors - the rural areas.

This raised the topic of the QCWA Public Rural Crisis Fund (PRCF), where all money donated goes to needed families in Queensland, with all administrative costs being borne by the QCWA. For more information: <http://www.qcwa.org.au/what-we-do/public-rural-crisis-fund/> All donations over $2 are tax deductible.

Several members are busy planning their Floral Art entries for the upcoming contest at Division level in Murgon, whilst Lyn Bunkum has entered the new Poetry Composition Contest at State level.

Welcome to all the members who took office and we hope for a good year ahead. We held a very successful "Sausage Sizzle" last Saturday at Maryborough Bunnings. It seems like hard work but it really is fun, you get to talk to some really nice people who stop and chat. This time we held a cake and biscuit stall inside and that was quite a success, as was our raffle of a $50 voucher for Bunnings, of course.

Seniors Week Morning Tea was a good day with lots of entertainment and lucky door prizes.

Friday 25th August was our usual visit to Petrie Gardens with the 'ressies' there.

Scrabble competition is our next big "DO". I wonder who will be hoping to be the winner this year? Cost is $10 for the day which includes morning tea, a lovely lunch and afternoon tea. (I'm afraid I wasn't at this month's meeting so I can't tell you what's on the menu but it's bound to be something scrummy).

Then blow me down, it's almost November and our Melbourne Cup day but that can wait for the next issue! So, till next month, stay safe on the roads! (And thank goodness the Maryborough interchange is open again and those businesses that were hurting so badly with the road works can pick up again). Remember :- Going to church doesn't make you a Christian any more than standing in garage makes you a car!!
